TEAM CONDUCT AGREEMENT & MEDIA CONSENT FORM

TEAM CONDUCT
The standard of conduct of all California Academic Decathlon (CAD) decathletes shall be no less than the expected standard of conduct for any off-campus activity. Appropriate conduct of decathletes is the sole responsibility of the team coach. The coach has the legal responsibility of chaperone for his/her team decathletes at all times. Decathletes shall be under the supervision of the coach, or another adult designated by the coach, during all excursions, activities and facilities.

In addition, the following rules will be enforced:

DRESS CODE
As representatives of Academic Decathlon, decathletes are expected to present a positive appearance and dress appropriately during all academic decathlon associated events. A participant could be excused from competition or from receiving recognition during the awards ceremony if inappropriately dressed.

During objective testing and Super Quiz, decathletes…

1. Will not be allowed to wear caps, sunglasses or anything that restricts a proctor’s view of the participant’s eyes.
2. Will not be allowed to wear distracting apparel of any kind.
3. Will not be allowed to have any digital devices or other type of electronics.

For Speech and Interview, it is recommended that decathletes dress in business professional or business casual attire.

I have read and understand Team Participation Agreement and agree to all of the conditions as specified. I understand that the failure to adhere to the policies and procedures set forth above may result in disqualification from competition.
